Weather Predicted
For Holiday

Circleville is prepared for an eventful Memorial Day with patriotic organizations, veterans, and school bands scheduled to participate in the Memorial services, many residents planning to receive holiday guests and others starting on week end trips to various parts of the country.

Memorial Day services for Circleville will be held Friday morning, the parade, including three bands, the Circleville High School band, the Junior band and the VFW band. The parade will form at Memorial Hall at 9 a. m. and move to Forest Cemetery, where the services will be held. Speaker will be the Rev. L. S. Metzler, pastor of the Pickaway United Brethren Church.

Other local communities throughout the county are planning their own Memorial Day ceremonies, with parades and speakers highlighting most of the programs.

City Observes Holiday
Most offices and business hours in Circleville will be closed all day. All offices at the Court House, including the Selective Service office, will be closed.

The weatherman promised he would not pull the same trick on Memorial Day celebrators that he did last year when he soaked paraders and holiday travelers in a downpour of rain.

"Fair and continued warm weather will prevail Friday," the weatherman said. Temperatures Thursday pushed again into the nineties as the heat wave continued. High Wednesday was 92 and low Thursday 65.

FORMER KAISER ILL IN HOLLAND; HEAT IS BLAMED

BERLIN, May 29—Former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany has been abed since Sunday suffering from intestinal disorders, it was learned today, but latest information from his exile home in Doorn indicates that doctors have not yet decided how serious his illness is.

General Donnes, the ex-kaiser's chief administrator in Berlin, is going to Doorn tomorrow. Gen. Donnes said there is no cause yet for alarm over the former monarch's condition, but due to his advanced age—he is 82—every precaution must be taken.

Princess Hermine, his wife, is at his bedside.

Exact nature of the illness is not known, but it is believed that it may have been provoked by digestive disturbances and discomfort from the sudden heat wave which hit Holland last week.

The ex-kaiser in recent months has been in the best of health, avidly following war developments, keeping track of movements on maps, and watching German news reels.

Hamilton Fish Now in Army

REPRESENTATIVE Hamilton Fish (R.) of New York, long-time outspoken critic of the Roosevelt administration, has been called to active duty in the United States army. Youth's Desire to Join Navy Being Blamed For Murder, Suicide in Ohio

PORTSMOUTH, May 29—The murder and suicide of a Middleport couple and the serious wounding of an 18-year-old son was traced directly by authorities today to the youth's expressed desire to join the Navy.

Harry Hill, 50-year-old relief client and father of six children, died of a self-inflicted shotgun blast after killing his wife, Garnett, 42, and critically wounding his son, Carl.

As Sheriff George R. Bearns reconstructed the tragedy, Carl, who had been employed on an NYA project, was shot by his father in a violent argument, and crawled to a neighbor's home to report the incident.

When Bearns went to the Hill home, the father, who had been jobless since 1933, appeared on the front porch with a shotgun and ordered the officer from the yard. Bearns left to summon deputies and highway patrolmen, and returned to find the house barricaded.

Hill fired several shotgun blasts at the besieging officers, who did not return the shots because of a year-old baby and a four-year-old son in the house. Eventually the four-year-old, Raymond, crawled from a window, crying that "Daddy and Mommy are dead."

Bearns entered the house to find Mrs. Hill, dead, but Hill was still living. He and Carl were rushed to a Gallipoli hospital, where Hill died. Carl was given a chance to recover.

General Donnes, the ex-kaiser's chief administrator in Berlin, is going to Doorn tomorrow. Gen. Donnes said there is no cause yet for alarm over the former monarch's condition, but due to his advanced age—he is 82—every precaution must be taken.

ROME — The Italian government announced today that Achille Starace "ceased to function as head of the Fascist militia May 25." The communique said Starace was replaced by Lieut. Gen. Enzo Gabriati. Major Crops Not Damaged Yet, But Wickard Sees Danger

WASHINGTON, May 29—The United States government intends to call an International Wheat Conference in Washington in the near future, the State Department disclosed today.

The disclosure was made in an exchange of notes between the U. S. and Canada concerning this government's decision to restrict Canadian wheat importations into this country.

WASHINGTON, May 29—Millions of dollars in crop damage was forecast today by agricultural experts as blistering temperatures baked farm areas east of the Mississippi and heavy rains washed out planting areas in the west and south.

As the eastern part of the United States experienced its worst drought in a decade, Secretary of Agriculture Wickard revealed that the government is experiencing difficulties in filling British requests for dairy products.

Paradoxically, some parts of the west were so drenched with moisture that it has been impossible to plant rice.

The unusual switch in weather conditions finds several light crops from Maine to Georgia and as far west as the Mississippi River "damaged beyond repair" while crops farther west are in good condition due to an unusual abundance of moisture.

Pastures Short
"I don't know what we can do if pastures become short. Dry feed to dairy herds does not produce the same yields as green feed," Wickard said. "I don't think the drought has affected principal crops, except maybe some areas in the southeast."

While most of the western half of the nation has been "unusually well supplied" with moisture so far this year, the weather bureau reported that "precipitation has been persistently sub-normal east of the Mississippi River . . . creating a decidedly serious drought situation."

"The situation is gradually growing worse," the bureau said, "and it is extending and intensifying. Some strawberries, seeded grains, hay, pastures and seed crops are damaged beyond repair, particularly in the central Ohio valley."

Corn To Be Affected
"Unless it rains very soon, corn on eastern farms will be seriously affected by the prolonged drought," Wickard said.

Wickard said the drought compares to the one in 1930 in the eastern section of the country — "but it is much more severe."

"Frankly, we're worried about the spread westward," he added. "The major crops haven't been damaged yet, but every day cuts down potential production. That's what we're afraid of."

FIRE, EXPLOSION WRECK HATTIESBURG FACTORY

HATTIESBURG, Miss., May 29—A leaking gas main was believed responsible today for a fire and explosion which destroyed three-quarters of the $500,000 Pine Products Company plant last night, injuring 12 workers.

Early fears that a number of workers had been killed were dispelled when police announced that 17 employees who were missing just after the blast last night had been found.

Roosevelt Casts Die, Bone Says

Bloc Doubles Its Effort To Keep Country Out

WASHINGTON, May 29 — Sen. Bone (D) Wash., a member of the congressional non-intervention bloc, warned today that it is "a matter of days" until the United States is at war with Germany.

Bone declared that President Roosevelt's historic Fireside Chat "has definitely cast the die," as other non-interventionists redoubled their efforts to keep the nation out of war.

"If the formula prescribed by the President in his speech is executed there seems no escape from the conclusion that actual fighting is a matter of days," Bone said.

"I think we may reasonably expect to be engaged in fighting very shortly in view of Germany's expressed determination to keep war materials from going to Great Britain," Bone continued. "And the kind of shooting we can expect is definite war regardless of any definitions that might be given."

Sen. Nye (R) N. D., a leader of the non-intervention bloc, said he "wouldn't be surprised if a resolution to impeach President Roosevelt was introduced in the House."

To Arouse Opinion
The North Dakotan declined to elaborate on his statement. It was made a few minutes before the non-interventionists unanimously adopted a resolution to "redouble" their efforts to keep the country out of war by arousing public opinion against the President's aid-to-Britain policy.

Ten senators and 45 representatives of the "no war bloc" issued a statement saying they were "encouraged to carry on the fight against war, because President Roosevelt is not yet won over to the war party."

The bloc said that "war is not inevitable" and urged the people

U. S. WILL START TRAINING PILOTS FOR RAF DUTY

WASHINGTON, May 29—Secretary of War Stimson announced today that a "pilots-for-Britain" program to train 8,000 Britons yearly in the United States as combat pilots and navigators will start June 7 with an initial class of 550 students.

Stimson explained the young Britons will be trained at Army Air Corps schools and eight civilian schools.

Germany's Prince Eugen Eludes British Armada

LONDON, May 29—British naval circles conceded today that the German cruiser Prince Eugen may have eluded a vast British fleet of more than 100 warships and sped far into the Atlantic Ocean to prey on merchant vessels.

(Editor's Note: In Washington yesterday President Roosevelt announced the United States Navy would undertake to patrol the seas wherever German submarines or surface raiders might be operating.)

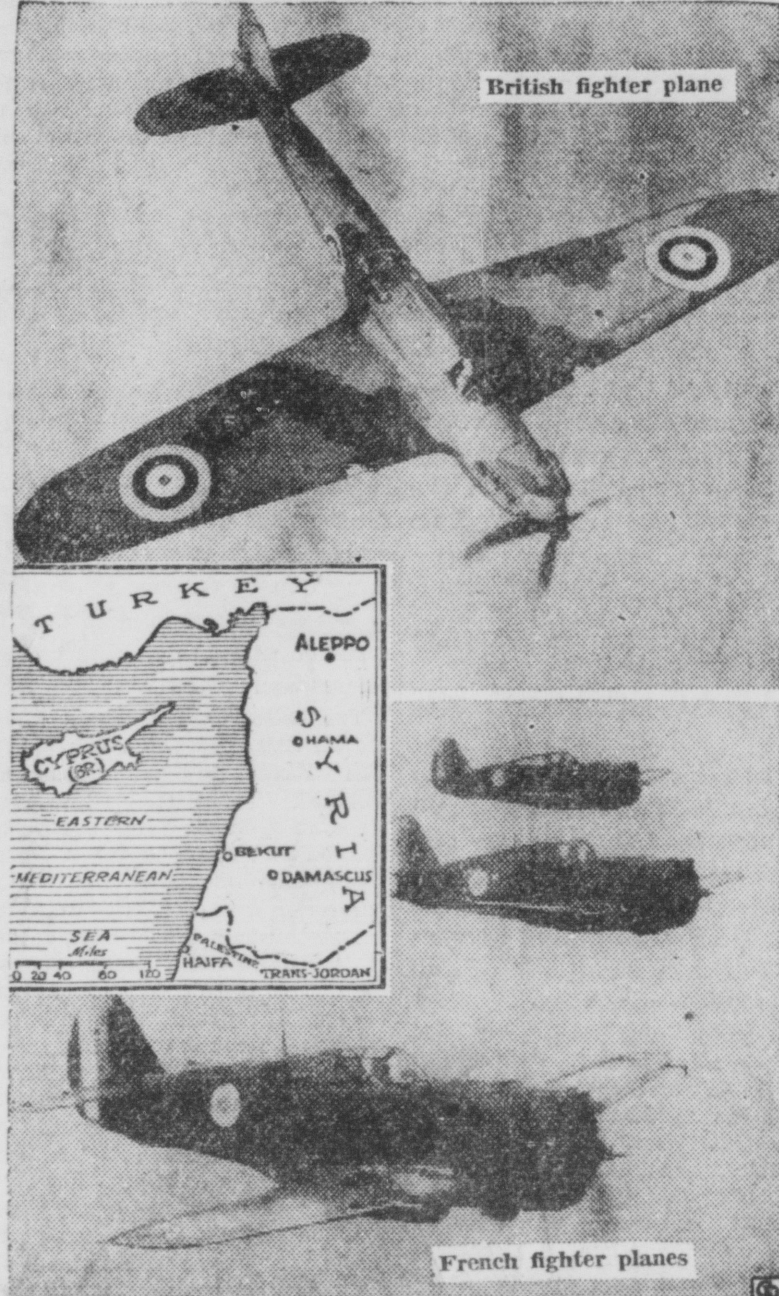

The huge fleet of British sea hunters pursued the Prince Eugen with the same relentless energy that finally sent the great German battleship Bismarck to the bottom of the Atlantic in retribution for sinking the British battle cruiser Hood.

The Prince Eugen, a speedy new 10,000-ton cruiser was the companion ship of the Bismarck on that expedition and as late as yesterday was still believed to be lurking somewhere in the mist-shrouded straits of Denmark, where the Hood met her doom.

Today, while it was understood the hunt for the cruiser was still continuing by sea and by air, naval circles grew pessimistic regarding the results.

They began to feel the cruiser

MICHIGAN MAN LONDON DEFENDS HANGS HIMSELF ATTACK ON SFAX IN HOTEL ROOM PORT IN TUNISIA

NEW YORK, May 29—Deaf to the pleas of his wife and child that he return to them, Benjamin Levitt who registered from 3604 29th Street, Detroit, hanged himself today in his room at the Hotel Capitol where he had been living since May 10.

There were, in all, three notes found in his room. The first was from his wife and had been airmailed from Detroit. It read: "Dear Husband: "I just don't understand you. Don't be desperate. Don't feel the world is closed. It is best for you to come home."

On the back of that note a child's hand had scrawled: "Dear Daddy, Please Come Home. Bebe."

And Levitt's reply: "I will think of you and the children in my grave."

Hotel officials said they were without knowledge of Levitt except that he appeared to be about 40 years old.

LONDON, May 29 — Charges that the French Tunisian port of Sfax, which was bombed by British planes yesterday, has "unquestionably" served as a base for German submarines were voiced by foreign diplomatic circles in London today.

These quarters said Nazi U-boats probably have been using Sfax as a base for the last four months, while carrying out raids and sinking merchant vessels in African waters.

(Editor's Note: French officials in Vichy yesterday professed amazement over the bombing of Sfax. Today, however, Vichy authorities explained that the bombing occurred when an Italian destroyer and cargo vessel found themselves "in difficulties" outside the port.)

(The cargo ship entered the harbor, followed by pursuing British planes which dropped bombs but failed to hit their target. Instead, one RAF bomb hit the French vessel Rabelais, wounding eight persons and slightly injuring others.)

VICHY, May 29—France today protested strongly to Britain against the bombing of Sfax, Tunisia, and official quarters backed up the protest with a warning that Vichy may act in reprisal if such violence continues.

Havas, the official French news agency, announced the protest with the comment: "Incessant violations of our international rights may provoke a reaction in international sentiment."

British planes reportedly dropped several bombs on Sfax yesterday, and one of them hit the 5,000-ton steamer Rabelais.

STEPPATHER LOSES LIFE TRYING TO SAVE BOY, 6

CLEVELAND, May 29—A 31-year-old man from suburban Lakewood was dead today along with his six-year-old stepson after he attempted to rescue the boy who had fallen into Rocky River in Metropolitan Park.

Although he could not swim, Leonard King heeded the boy's cries for help and plunged into water 12 feet deep and was instantly dragged under by a whirlpool. Firemen used inhalators for two hours before pronouncing the victims dead.

York, In Active Service, Sent To Bottom Of Suda Bay

BERLIN, May 29—Germany today claimed capture of the city and airport of Candia, capital of ancient Crete, in quick action following full occupation of Suda Bay and a thrust to Almyro Bay.

BERLIN, May 29—German cruisers in "overseas waters" have sunk 52,000 more tons of merchant shipping, the Nazi supreme command announced today, reporting a series of victories on the sea and in the air, and in Crete and North Africa.

German mountain troops are pursuing the British in Crete, and at Tobruk in Libya turned back a British sortie from the long-besieged city. Successful air raids on Britain were reported, while the supreme command said only "slight damage" was caused by RAF assaults on German territory.

ROME, May 29—Forming the eastern end of a gigantic squeeze movement in Crete, a strong force of Italian soldiers and marines has landed on the island and today was moving through the Cretan mountains towards the German front on the west.

Between the two jaws of the pincers, the axis expected to crush the remainder of the British Imperial and Greek armies on Crete and prevent their escape.

LONDON, May 29—The situation of the British and Greek defenders of Crete became increasingly serious today as the Germans succeeded in landing considerable numbers of troops from the sea.

Simultaneously the British admiralty revealed another heavy naval loss in Cretan waters, the total destruction of the cruiser York while it was lying idle in Suda Bay undergoing repairs.

An official communique said the 8,250-ton cruiser, completed in 1928, "was bombed repeatedly whilst under repair in Suda Bay." Casualties were announced as two killed and five wounded.

The York, which has been on constant active service during the present war, carried a normal complement of 600 officers and men.

Authoritative British quarters made no effort to deny German claims that the Nazis had captured the ship.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS YOUTHFUL MUSICIANS PLAY

A capacity crowd filled the high school auditorium Wednesday night to hear Circleville's High School band, its orchestra, and its junior band present their annual music festival.

The program, under the direction of C. F. Zaenglein, instrumental director at the school, consisted of numbers by each of the three groups as well as special numbers by individual members. About 125 school pupils participated in the program.

Thursday, the Senior and Junior bands were preparing for Memorial Day services Friday, when they make their last appearance until next fall. A third Zaenglein-coached group, the beginners' band, will march in the parade, too.

Nearly all the band members will be back next year, Prof. Zaenglein said, and he is hoping for a "topnotch" band next year.

ROME, May 29—Forming the eastern end of a gigantic squeeze movement in Crete, a strong force of Italian soldiers and marines has landed on the island and today was moving through the Cretan mountains towards the German front on the west.

Between the two jaws of the pincers, the axis expected to crush the remainder of the British Imperial and Greek armies on Crete and prevent their escape.

LONDON, May 29—The situation of the British and Greek defenders of Crete became increasingly serious today as the Germans succeeded in landing considerable numbers of troops from the sea.

Simultaneously the British admiralty revealed another heavy naval loss in Cretan waters, the total destruction of the cruiser York while it was lying idle in Suda Bay undergoing repairs.

An official communiqué said the 8,250-ton cruiser, completed in 1928, "was bombed repeatedly whilst under repair in Suda Bay." Casualties were announced as two killed and five wounded.

The York, which has been on constant active service during the present war, carried a normal complement of 600 officers and men.

Authoritative British quarters made no effort to deny German claims that the Nazis had captured.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS YOUTHFUL MUSICIANS PLAY

A capacity crowd filled the high school auditorium Wednesday night to hear Circleville's High School band, its orchestra, and its junior band present their annual music festival.

The program, under the direction of C. F. Zaenglein, instrumental director at the school, consisted of numbers by each of the three groups as well as special numbers by individual members. About 125 school pupils participated in the program.

Thursday, the Senior and Junior bands were preparing for Memorial Day services Friday, when they make their last appearance until next fall. A third Zaenglein-coached group, the beginners' band, will march in the parade, too.

Nearly all the band members will be back next year, Prof. Zaenglein said, and he is hoping for a "topnotch" band next year.

No Possibility Of Hitler Invasion, Montana Solon Tells Crowd

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29—Senator Burton K. Wheeler (D) of Montana, leader of the senate anti-interventionists, maintained today that President Roosevelt did not tell the American people "the facts" in his worldwide address Tuesday night.

In a formal reply to the President's address, Senator Wheeler, speaking last night at an Indianapolis rally sponsored by the America First Committee, declared:

"America is not at war, and no senator or congressman will vote for war over the opposition of 85 to 90 percent of this nation's people."

Addressing himself to the President, Wheeler went on:

"At this minute you are the leader of the Morgans, the Rockefellers, the Kuhn-Loebes and the elder statesmen who want war but are too old to fight."

Wendell Willkie is your lieutenant. These, your new-found friends, join in praising the war program which you have raised in the ashes of social and economic reform. Aren't you, Mr. President, a little chagrined by your new-found friends?"

False Fear Aroused

Senator Wheeler charged the President with involving the United States in foreign entanglements and with arousing false fears of a Nazi invasion of the Western Hemisphere.

The facts, Wheeler said, were these:

"... that there is no possibility of a military invasion of the Americas."

"That our navy is the mightiest in the world and that it is becoming stronger and stronger."

"That the German fleet is inconsequential and was designed for short-range fighting."

"That to invade either North or South America, the invading force would need a tremendously superior fleet."

"That it would require at least seven years for Germany to build a fleet that would equal ours."

"That if the British navy were to be captured tomorrow that one, two, or more years would be required to train men to operate the vessels and then to integrate the units into a cohesive fighting force."

"That there isn't sufficient shipping in all the world today to transport an army of a million men and all their necessary supplies from Europe or Africa to the Americas."

"In raising war fears, the President, Wheeler charged, is following 'international bankers, jingoistic journalists, fierce and warlike statesmen (who) would plunge this nation into war either because of their hate or fear of the little paper hanger from Berlin.'"

To Reassert Faith

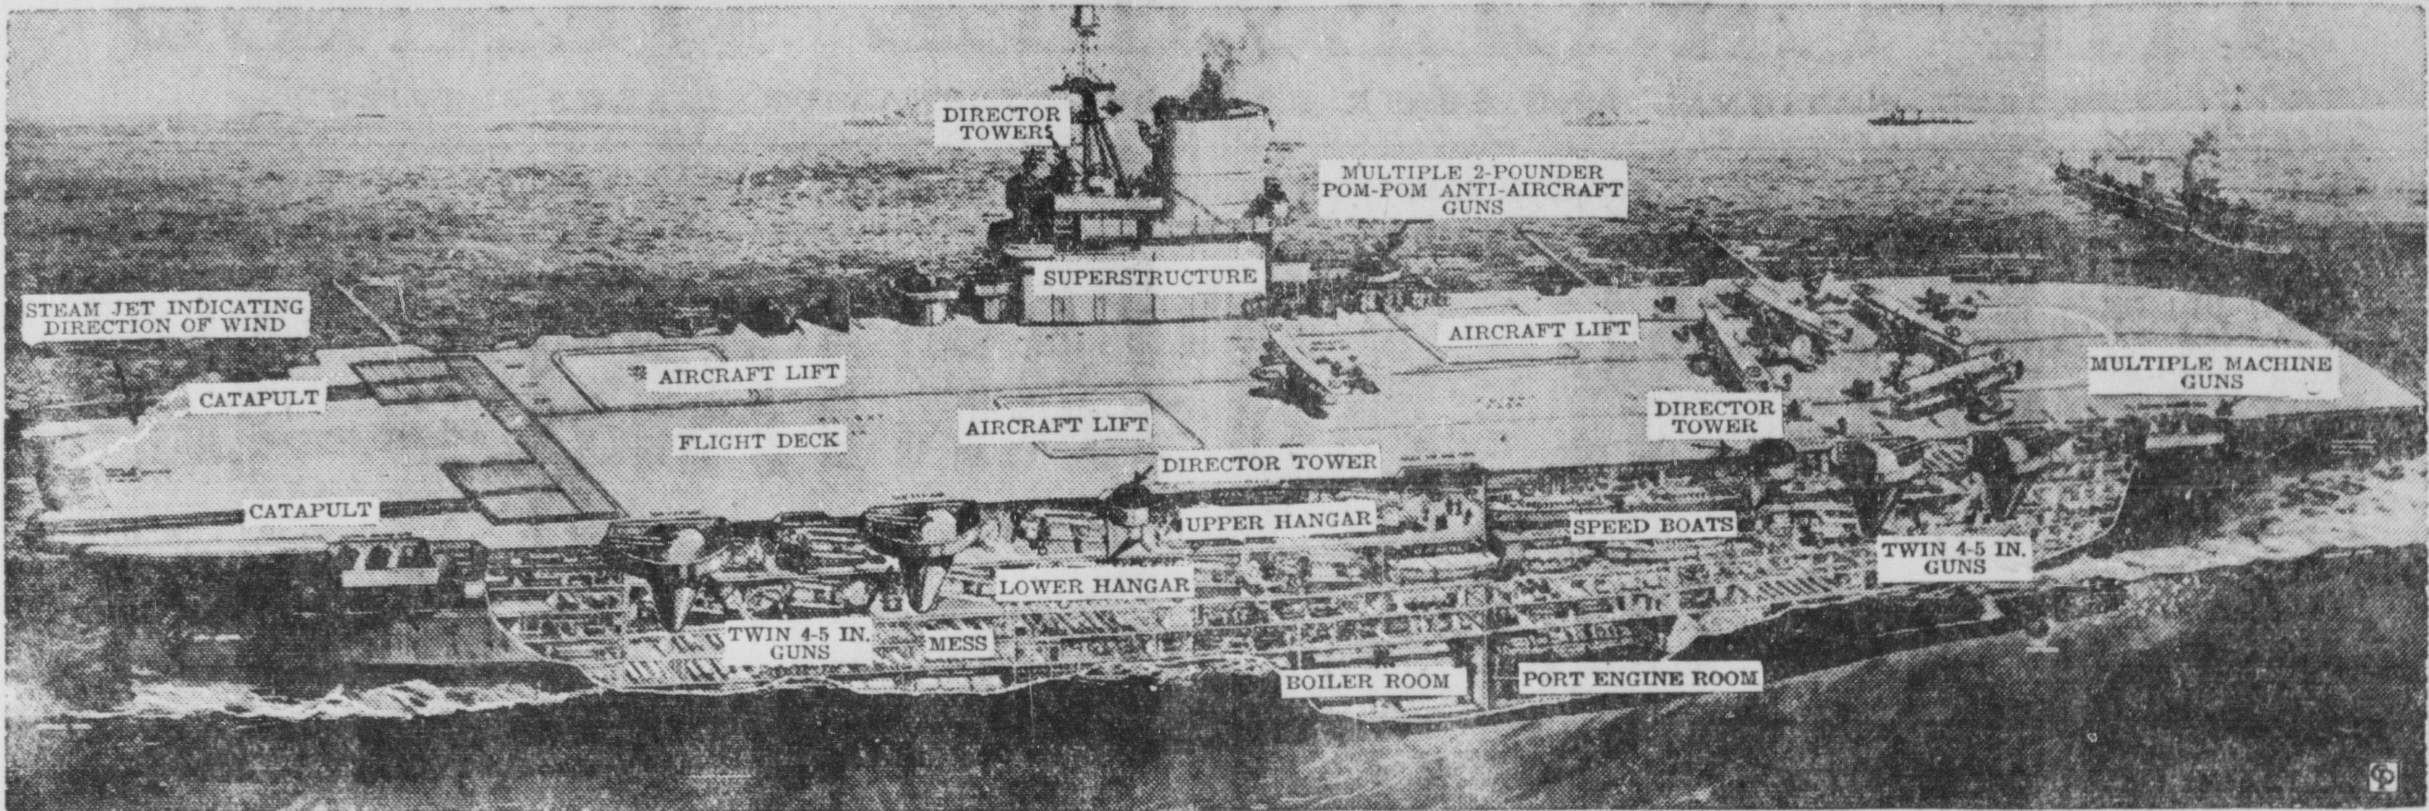

Wheeler then called on the President "to reassert his faith in the Constitution of the United States; to reassert his repeated promises not to send American boys to fight and die on foreign soil in a foreign war; to reassert his confidence in a government of the people, and to reassert his desire to abide by the law of the land."

HERE is a close-up sketch of H. M. S. Ark Royal, the British aircraft carrier which made history when her scouting planes found and her torpedo planes crippled the doomed German battleship Bismarck which might otherwise have escaped the pursuing British Atlantic fleet. The artist has removed the portside of the vessel so the reader may see into the intricate "innards" of the ship. Immediately beneath the flight deck amidships are the hangars housing the Ark Royal's six aircraft squadrons. Note how the plane wings are folded back to conserve space. The planes are brought to the flight deck by means of three lifts. The Ark Royal is speedy—she can do 31 knots. Well armed, the carrier has 16 4.5, eight sets of multiple machine guns and numerous pom-poms. Note the comparative size of H. M. S. Wren, the Ark Royal's escort destroyer, steaming astern. The Wren accompanies the carrier wherever the huge ship goes.

County Ready for Vote On Wheat Market Quota

County AAA officials, Thursday, announced they were ready for the wheat marketing quota referendum on Saturday with all necessary forms completed and election committees appointed.

Fifteen polling places with an election committee of three at each station will provide voting facilities for the 1,400 wheat farmers in the county eligible to vote. Any Pickaway County farmer who raises, or has an interest in more than 15 acres of wheat, may vote on the referendum.

COUNCIL VOTES BONDS FOR NEW GARAGE BUILDING

Under suspension of rules, City Council Wednesday night passed a $2,000 bond issue for the purchase and repair of the county garage building on East Ohio Street, the building to be occupied by the service department as soon as it has been repaired.

A $2,000 note, bearing 2 percent interest, will be sold in anticipation of the bond issue so that the funds may be obtained immediately and work started on the building.

Two $1,000 bonds will be sold. One will mature on December 15, 1942 and the other on December 15, 1943.

The East Ohio Street building will give the service department considerably more space than it has in its present building on East Franklin Street behind the fire department.

Of the total bond issue, $1,300 is to be used for the purchase of the real estate on which the garage stands and $700 is to be used for additional construction and repair.

PARK GROUP HAS DISCUSSION OF EQUIPMENT NEED

Purchase of playground equipment for the Ted Lewis Recreation Center was discussed by the Park Commission Wednesday night when it met in the office of L. V. Hulse, recreation supervisor.

No contracts for equipment were made at Wednesday night's meeting, although the Commission considered several pieces which it believed would be needed.

Further plans were made for the Commission's rummage sale, to be held June 7, at the Elmer Wolf building on East Franklin Street. The Commission reports that many articles are being donated for the sale. All proceeds go into the Park Commission fund for further development of the park grounds.

Harry Bartholomew, chairman of the Commission, said the tennis courts being constructed on the grounds are near completion and should be ready for use by the middle of next week. The courts are being constructed with asphalt bases.

No Possibility Of Hitler Invasion, Montana Solon Tells Crowd

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29—Senator Burton K. Wheeler (D) of Montana, leader of the senate anti-interventionists, maintained today that President Roosevelt did not tell the American people "the facts" in his worldwide address Tuesday night.

In a formal reply to the President's address, Senator Wheeler, speaking last night at an Indianapolis rally sponsored by the America First Committee, declared:

"America is not at war, and no senator or congressman will vote for war over the opposition of 85 to 90 percent of this nation's people."

Addressing himself to the President, Wheeler went on:

"At this minute you are the leader of the Morgans, the Rockefellers, the Kuhn-Loebes and the elder statesmen who want war but are too old to fight."

False Fear Aroused
Senator Wheeler charged the President with involving the United States in foreign entanglements and with arousing false fears of a Nazi invasion of the Western Hemisphere.

The facts, Wheeler said, were these:

"... that there is no possibility of a military invasion of the Americas."

"That our navy is the mightiest in the world and that it is becoming stronger and stronger."

"That the German fleet is inconsequential and was designed for short-range fighting."

"That to invade either North or South America, the invading force would need a tremendously superior fleet."

"That it would require at least seven years for Germany to build a fleet that would equal ours."

"In raising war fears, the President, Wheeler charged, is following 'international bankers, jingoistic journalists, fierce and warlike statesmen (who) would plunge this nation into war either because of their hate or fear of the little paper hanger from Berlin.'"

To Reassert Faith

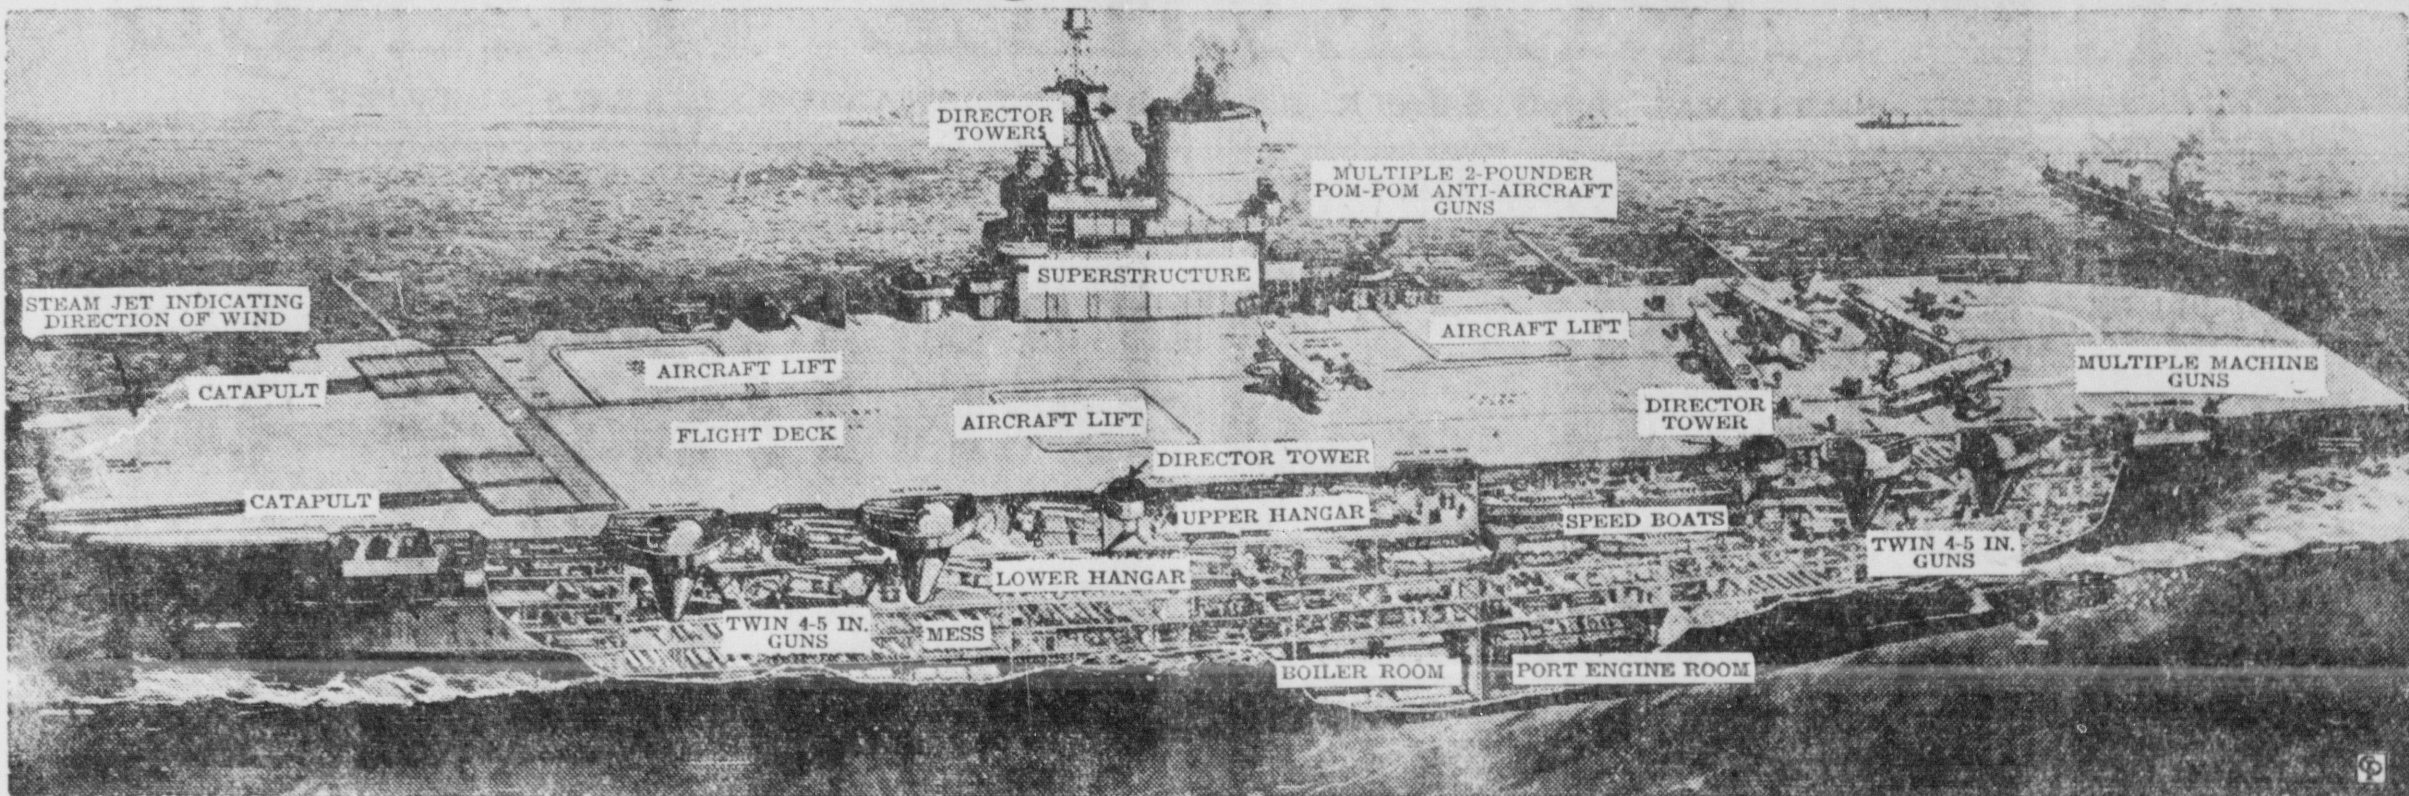

Wheeler then called on the President "to reassert his faith in the Constitution of the United States; to reassert his repeated promises not to send American boys to fight and die on foreign soil in a foreign war; to reassert his confidence in a government of the people, and to reassert his desire to abide by the law of the land."

County Ready for Vote On Wheat Market Quota

County AAA officials, Thursday, announced they were ready for the wheat marketing quota referendum on Saturday with all necessary forms completed and election committees appointed.

Fifteen polling places with an election committee of three at each station will provide voting facilities for the 1,400 wheat farmers in the county eligible to vote. Any Pickaway County farmer who raises, or has an interest in more than 15 acres of wheat, may vote on the referendum.

The ballot handed wheat farmers on Saturday will read: "Do You Favor Wheat Marketing Quotas?" Those in favor may place an X in the "yes" square on the ballot. Those opposed may place their mark in the "no" square.

Two-thirds of the farmers voting in the referendum must approve the quotas before they become effective, Chairman John G. Boggs has explained. If approved, farm-1941 wheat allotments are not affected. They may market or feed any or all of the wheat produced within their allotments. However, farmers who have over-planted their allotments may market or feed wheat grown within the allotment, but they must store the excess production or pay a penalty on each bushel marketed or fed above the allotment.

Poling places in the county are: Circleville Township, AAA office, East Main Street; Darby Township, Township House; Deer Creek Township, Township; Harrison Township, Township House; Jackson Township, Township House; Madison Township, Township House; Monroe Township, Township House; Five Points; Muhlenberg Township, Township House; Perry Township, Atlanta School; Pickaway Township, Township House; Salter Creek Township, school building; Scioto Township, Township House; Walnut Township, school building; Washington Township, Township House and Wayne Township, Township House.

Polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 5 p. m.

PARK GROUP HAS DISCUSSION OF EQUIPMENT NEED

Purchase of playground equipment for the Ted Lewis Recreation Center was discussed by the Park Commission Wednesday night when it met in the office of L. V. Hulse, recreation supervisor.

No contracts for equipment were made at Wednesday night's meeting, although the Commission considered several pieces which it believed would be needed.

Further plans were made for the Commission's rummage sale, to be held June 7, at the Elmer Wolf building on East Franklin Street. The Commission reports that many articles are being donated for the sale. All proceeds go into the Park Commission fund for further development of the park grounds.

Harry Bartholomew, chairman of the Commission, said the tennis courts being constructed on the grounds are near completion and should be ready for use by the middle of next week. The courts are being constructed with asphalt bases.

TO OBSERVE HOLIDAYS

Rothman's store will be closed Saturday, Sunday and Monday in observance of holidays.

ed Cana, capital of the Greek Mediterranean island.

Claim Not Surprised

They declared that while no communications have reached London detailing the latest positions of the opposing ground troops, the German claim to have captured Cana was not surprising.

(Editor's Note: An official Berlin announcement said that the German offensive in Crete is "progressing favorably.")

(The Nazi high command stated that the entire Cana-Suda Bay region, which was captured yesterday, is now "firmly in German hands" and that several hundred prisoners and a large quantity of war material had been captured.

(German forces defeated Anglo-Greek forces on the east coast of the Suda Bight and continued their advance to the east, according to this announcement.)

Authoritative British circles said the Crete capital of Cana as well as the cities of Retimo and Candia—the latter Crete's capital in the days of its ancient glory—had been utterly destroyed by German bombers.

Civilians Machinegunned

These quarters charged the German planes machine-gunned the civilian population of the three cities as they ran for cover during the air attacks. These charges were based on reports reaching the Greek legation in London.

British sources said it was possible that some light British reinforcements had reached Crete.

But they declared reports—broadcast by the Ankara radio—that streams of fresh troops were aiding the defenders were not justified by the facts.

They also conceded that an increasing number of British long-range Blenheim fighter planes had been unable to stem the Nazi bombings of British positions.

Similarly, it was conceded, the RAF had been unable to prevent German troop landings from the sea. They said the invaders of Crete are now using more seaborne troops and less parachutists.

Improvement of the German position around Maleme enabled the Nazis to concentrate their forces, but as long as Suda Bay remains under British artillery fire the Germans will still be limited to light field guns—and bombers.

50,000 Germans Used

British quarters said the Germans thrown into the battle of Crete now must number nearly 50,000 men—with more than 20 percent of this force already killed or wounded.

Greek Premier Tsouderos at Cairo sent a message to the Greek legation in London stating that the German air raids on Crete were carried out with unparalleled ferocity.

He added that fierce fighting was continuing south of Cana, Retimo and Cana.

Further deterioration of the British situation occurred at Crete despite a terrific "slugging match" that raged between the opposing ground forces.

The allied British and Greek forces were reported to have fallen back to a line of continuous positions which was being subjected to intensive aerial attacks even while fierce hand-to-hand fighting raged on the ground.

(Editor's Note: The Ankara (Turkish) radio reported that a "continuous stream" of British reinforcements is now reaching Crete and added that German planes apparently were unable to prevent British ships from reaching the embattled Mediterranean island with men, war supplies and food.)

OHIOAN KILLED BY BULL ON FARM NEAR KENTON

KENTON, May 29—William Mapleton, 70-year-old hardware dealer at nearby Forest, was killed by a bull in a field at his farm last night, Coroner J. A. Mooney reported today. The bull, according to the coroner, had no horns but butted the farm operator, eventually trampling him to death. The victim was unable to use a pitchfork he had by his side.

JURORS CALLED TO COURT FOR PARENTAGE HEARING

Probate Court officials Thursday announced the selection of a jury list of 22 persons from which a jury will be selected to hear the statutory case against James Speakman of Circleville. Plaintiff in the case is Viola Myers, 15, now at Girls' Industrial School, Delaware, who claims Speakman is the father of her nine-month-old child. Speakman is free under bond.

The case is expected to be heard early in June with the following persons on the jury list: Ira Fisher, Walnut Township; Wallace Crist, Circleville; Mary May, Circleville; Harry West, Deer Creek Township; D. E. Mossbarger, Wayne Township; Dano Estell, Pickaway Township; Mary F. Keller, Monroe Township; Harry Hosler Jr., Monroe Township; Wayne Dreisbach, Salt Creek Township; Harry Bailey, Monroe Township; Fred Call, Monroe Township; Mary Metzger, Deer Creek Township; Marvin Steeley, Washington Township; David Dunnick, Harrison Township; Margaret Ballard, Salt Creek Township; E. H. May, Deer Creek Township; Etta Trego, Deer Creek Township; Earl Andrews, Perry Township; Earl Vincent Jr., Perry Township; Harry M. Hill, Muhlenberg Township and Lawrence Krimmel, Jackson Township.

The list was selected by Jury Commissioners J. M. Borror and W. D. Heiskell.

Today's Garden-Graph

Frequent spraying of potatoes, whether they appear to require it or not, will reduce to a minimum, or perhaps prevent entirely the diseases which injure the tops of the plants. The food material stored in the potato tuber is first manufactured by the plant's leaves. Therefore, disease which damages or destroys the leaves of the plant reduces the size of the potatoes growing underground.

EARLY BLIGHT OF POTATOES

Disease prevention for better potatoes

As illustrated in the Garden-Graph, early blight of potatoes reveals itself by the appearance of brown patches on the leaves. The remedy is Bordeaux mixture, applied wet, as a spray, or dry, in the form of dust. The most effective way, however, to protect potato plants against disease is to combine a poison and a fungicide. This can be done by stirring arsenate of lead into the Bordeaux mixture. This combination will control the flea-beetle, Colorado potato beetle and the leafhopper. Be sure to spray both sides of the leaves. Repeat this spray treatment every two weeks throughout the growing season.

Cousin Saved

LORD Louis Mountbatten, above, cousin of King George VI, was saved when the destroyer he commanded during naval operations in the battle of Crete was lost. Mountbatten's destroyer, H. M. S. Kelly, was sunk. Eight officers and 120 men were reported saved.

peared groundless today. Information reaching London showed that only three survivors from the Hood have turned up so far—one officer and two sailors, out of a total complement of more than 1,300. An equally heavy loss of German life was reported when the Bismarck was sunk by avenging naval units.

LONDON—Authoritative London quarters said today they had no knowledge of published reports that Max Schmeling, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, had been killed in Crete. (Editor's Note: Recent reports from Berlin said Schmeling was one of the first German parachute troops to participate in the Nazi air invasion of Crete.)

ROME—The Italian high command announced today that Italian troops have landed in Crete. The Fascist forces arrived in the Greek Mediterranean island to assist German air-borne forces in smashing Anglo-Greek resistance.

BERLIN—The German high command announced today that German forces repulsed a British sortie at Tobruk, Libya, during the night.

ISTANBUL—Turkish authorities today regarded President Roosevelt's radio address as the "next thing to a declaration of war." The President's proclamation of an unlimited emergency, however, proved confusing to Turkish observers who wondered what connection it had with supplying materials to Britain.

LONDON—Writing in the magazine "The Aeroplane," Peter Masefield, British aviation expert, expressed the view today that the German air force could bomb New York whenever it wished.

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—Two hundred and fifty German and Italian seamen, seized in the recent federal roundup of aliens in New York City, will enter here today for western internment camps. A group of 200 Germans will be sent to Fort Lincoln, N. D., while 50 Italians will be interned at Fort Missoula, Mont.

CHILLICOTHE AUTO HIT BY ASHVILLE MACHINE

Patrolman Alva Shasteen reported a minor traffic accident on Court Street, at Pinckney, Thursday, when the car of J. J. O'Connor, official of the Mead Pulp and Paper Company, Chillicothe, was struck from the rear by a car driven by John G. Hoover of Ashville.

The O'Connor car, driven by Jake Stauffer of Chillicothe, was traveling south on Court Street and had stopped for the red light at Pinckney when it was struck from behind by the Hoover car. Patrolman Shasteen said.

The rear end of the Chillicothe car and the grill and front fenders of Hoover's car were damaged. Both cars carried insurance.

Roosevelt Casts Die, Bone Says

to carry on a campaign "to keep our country out of a shooting war."

With likelihood of sharp congressional debate over the President's determination to maintain the freedom of the seas at all costs, administration leaders defended Mr. Roosevelt's address and full emergency proclamation as to the best interest of America.

Members of the Senate and House, meanwhile, were frankly puzzled over the President's remarks during his press conference following the Fireside Chat. The President's assertion that he has no immediate intention of asking repeal of the Neutrality Act caused some non-interventionists to charge that "he's quite oblivious of the fact that there is a congress."

They argued that the President must remove the prohibition against American merchant ships entering war zones if he is to carry out his aid to Britain program outlined in his speech. Repeal, or modification of the Neutrality Act, they pointed out, would require congressional approval.

Would Be About Face

Bone observed that "it would be a most peculiar about face" if the President failed to request repeal of the Neutrality Act. He said also that the President's statement that he thought freedom of the seas could be limited by forbidding American ships to go into areas where they might be destroyed was "at variance" with his Fireside Chat.

"Under the present situation freedom of the seas can only mean the grave risk of fighting to maintain it," Bone said.

It was reported in authoritative quarters that President Roosevelt told congressional leaders during the "preview" of his speech that this country is past the stage of convulsions, and the necessity of repealing the Neutrality Act.

Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, a leading non-interventionist, in a radio speech, said that the President indicated in his Fireside Chat "an intention on his part to push further and further towards war without consulting the people."

Taft again said that Mr. Roosevelt avoided the basic issues because he sensed a tremendous growth of sentiment against war and convulsions, but he made "vague threats of aggressive warlike action to be undertaken in his sole discretion." The Ohioan reiterated his charge that the unlimited national emergency "has no legal effect whatever." Regarding the President's statements on the Cape Verde Islands, the Azores and Dakar, Taft said:

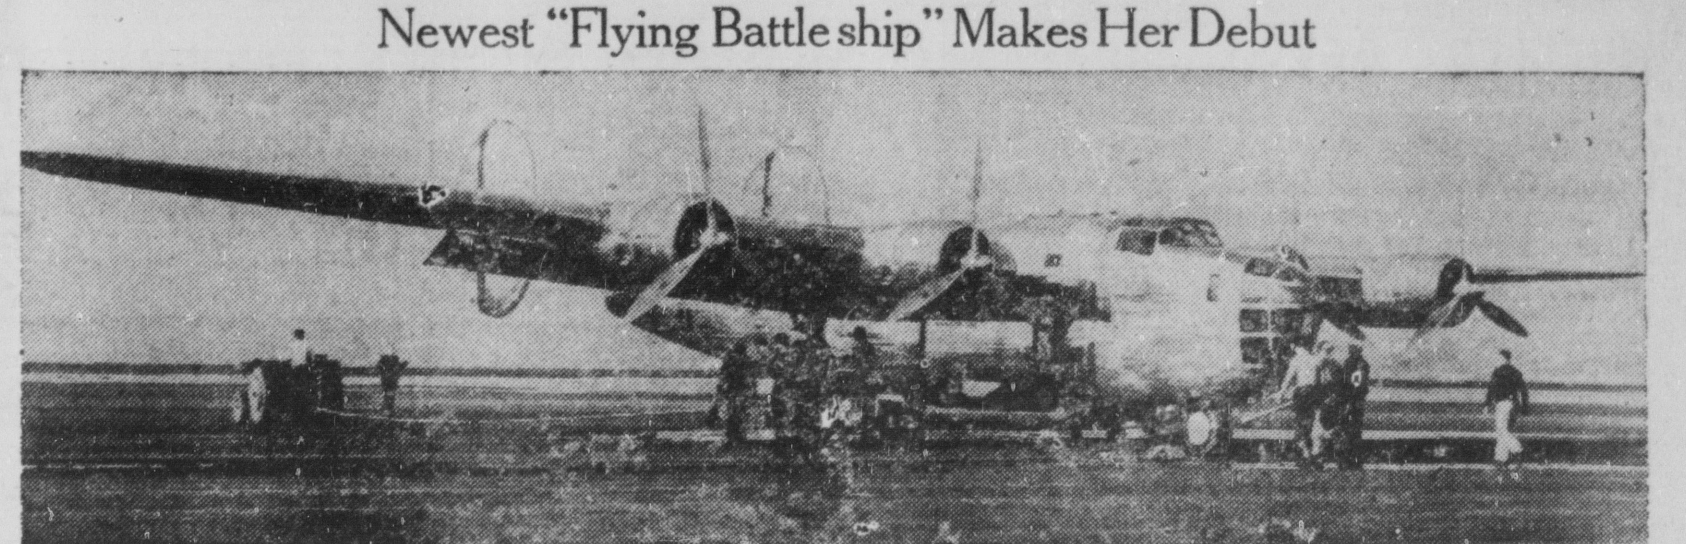

"He hints that the term 'defense' will be interpreted by him to mean the occupation of islands 3,000 miles from our eastern shore, within 400 miles of Africa, belong to a neutral nation. In short, he is suggesting that he may, in dictator style, take warlike action without submitting to the people, whose vital welfare is concerned, the question whether or not we shall go to war. That is not democratic procedure."

BRITISH RESCUE 100 FROM CREW OF GERMAN SHIP

LONDON, May 29—One hundred officers and men of the battleship Bismarck were rescued after the 35,000-ton German warship was sunk Tuesday, and today were being taken to prison camps. The admiralty, however, admitted that a German vengeance fleet of airplanes sank the destroyer Mashona the day after the Bismarck. One officer and 45 men are missing.

Newest "Flying Battle ship" Makes Her Debut

SHOWN on her first outing at Lindbergh Field, San Diego, Cal., is the Consolidated Aircraft Company's XB-24 bombing plane, nicknamed the "Flying Battleship." The great four-motored ship can carry a bomb load of four tons and has a range of 3,000 miles. Speed is around 300 miles an hour. The wing span is 110 feet, the fuselage is 64 feet. The ship is now said to be in production for use by the RAF.

TONY ZALE PUTS AL HOSTAK OUT EARLY IN BOUT

By H. C. Warren

CHICAGO, May 29—The drums were beating today for a Tony Zale-Billy Soose fight to clear up the muddled middleweight title situation.

Zale, the National Boxing Association's 160-pound champion, clearly asserted his right to title honors last night when he pounded his No. 1 challenger former NBA titleholder Al Hostak of Seattle, into complete submission within two rounds of a scheduled 15-round battle.

Next step in the clearing-up process would be an early meeting between Zale and Soose, who holds the New York version of the middleweight championship.

The 15,087 spectators who paid $48,475 for the privilege of sitting in the 100-degree sweltering temperature of the Chicago Stadium last night were convinced that from the workmanlike manner in which Zale disposed of Hostak, the Gary boxer's title is safe for some time to come. They were convinced too, that they'd like to see a Zale-Soose rubber match.

Hostak hit the canvas eight times in rapid succession before he went down for the ninth time to stay down. The knockout punch—a jarring right under the heart—came just two minutes and 32 seconds after the second round started.

The story, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," is still popular, and five-and-ten-cent stores frequently carry it. It has been translated into more than 25 languages, and is estimated to have sold over 50,000,000 copies.

Just press down your right toe!

Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedan, $1006. White sidewall tires extra.

You slip into this trim Buick's seat — and right off the bat you know you've found something.

The cushions fit—the wheel nestles in your hand—the whole blessed beauty seems to say, "Welcome, friend! Where've you been?"

Then you seek out an open road where you can really try Compound Carburetion†—and press down your right toe!

Instantly, there's a rush of power, as if an extra engine had gone to work.

Fact is—one has.

Under your bonnet a special, second carburetor has cut in, opening up a fresh reservoir of power not to be found in any other engine.

Most of the time that extra carburetor is idle. Your car operates solely on the small, frugal forward carburetor.

But any time you need or want power—press down your toe and away you go, with two fuel mixers working!

Thrilling? You bet. But by actual test and experience, also more thrifty—as much as 10% to 15% more thrifty than previous Buicks of like size.

Only Buick can give you Compound Carburetion—and even that is only one of Buick's many desirabilities.

There's great size—lush comfort—the smartest of style—solid Buick goodness—all at prices that spell an unmistakable bargain. Why not ask your Buick dealer, "How much?"

The remedy is Bordeaux mixture, applied wet, as a spray, or dry, in the form of dust. The most effective way, however, to protect potato plants against disease is to combine a poison and a fungicide. This can be done by stirring arsenate of lead into the Bordeaux mixture. This combination will control the flea-beetle, Colorado potato beetle and the leafhopper. Be sure to spray both sides of the leaves. Repeat this spray treatment every two weeks throughout the growing season.

peared groundless today. Information reaching London showed that only three survivors from the Hood have turned up so far—one officer and two sailors, out of a total complement of more than 1,300. An equally heavy loss of German life was reported when the Bismarck was sunk by avenging naval units.

LONDON — Authoritative London quarters said today they had no knowledge of published reports that Max Schmeling, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, had been killed in Crete. (Editor's Note: Recent reports from Berlin said Schmeling was one of the first German parachute troops to participate in the Nazi air invasion of Crete.)

ROME — The Italian high command announced today that Italian troops have landed in Crete. The Fascist forces arrived in the Greek Mediterranean island to assist German air-borne forces in smashing Anglo-Greek resistance.

BERLIN — The German high command announced today that German forces repulsed a British sortie at Tobruk, Libya, during the night.

ISTANBUL — Turkish authorities today regarded President Roosevelt's radio address as the "next thing to a declaration of war." The President's proclamation of an unlimited emergency, however, proved confusing to Turkish observers who wondered what connection it had with supplying materials to Britain.

LONDON—Writing in the magazine "The Aeroplane," Peter Masfield, British aviation expert, expressed the view today that the German air force could bomb New York whenever it wished.

JERSEY CITY, N. J. — Two hundred and fifty German and Italian seamen, seized in the recent federal roundup of aliens in New York City, will be taken here today for western internment camps. A group of 200 Germans will be sent to Fort Lincoln, N. D., while 50 Italians will be interned at Fort Missoula, Mont.

CHILLICOTHE AUTO HIT BY ASHVILLE MACHINE

Patrolman Alva Shasteen reported a minor traffic accident on Court Street, at Pinckney, Thursday, when the car of J. J. O'Connor, official of the Mead Pulp and Paper Company, Chillicothe, was struck from the rear by a car driven by John G. Hoover of Ashville.

The O'Connor car, driven by Jake Stauffer of Chillicothe, was traveling south on Court Street and had stopped for the red light at Pinckney when it was struck from behind by the Hoover car. Patrolman Shasteen said.

The rear end of the Chillicothe car and the grill and front fenders of Hoover's car were damaged. Both cars carried insurance.

Roosevelt Casts Die, Bone Says

to carry on a campaign "to keep our country out of a shooting war."

With likelihood of sharp congressional debate over the President's determination to maintain the freedom of the seas at all costs, administration leaders defended Mr. Roosevelt's address and full emergency proclamation as to the best interest of America.

Members of the Senate and House, meanwhile, were frankly puzzled over the President's remarks during his press conference following the Fireside Chat. The President's assertion that he has no immediate intention of asking repeal of the Neutrality Act caused some non-interventionists to charge that "he's quite oblivious of the fact that there is a congress."

They argued that the President must remove the prohibition against American merchant ships entering war zones if he is to carry out his aid to Britain program outlined in his speech. Repeal, or modification of the Neutrality Act, they pointed out, would require congressional approval.

Would Be About Face

Bone observed that "it would be a most peculiar about face" if the President failed to request repeal of the Neutrality Act. He said also that the President's statement that he thought freedom of the seas could be limited by forbidding American ships to go into areas where they might be destroyed was "at variance" with his Fireside Chat.

"Under the present situation freedom of the seas can only mean the grave risk of fighting to maintain it," Bone said.

It was reported in authoritative quarters that President Roosevelt told congressional leaders during the "preview" of his speech that this country is past the stage of convoys, and the necessity of repealing the Neutrality Act.

Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, a leading non-interventionist, in a radio speech, said that the President indicated in his Fireside Chat "an intention on his part to push further and further towards war without consulting the people."

Taft again said that Mr. Roosevelt avoided the basic issues because he sensed a tremendous growth of sentiment against war and convoys, but he made "vague threats of aggressive warlike action to be undertaken in his sole discretion." The Ohioan reiterated his charge that the unlimited national emergency "has no legal effect whatever." Regarding the President's statements on the Cape Verde Islands, the Azores and Dakar, Taft said:

"He hints that the term 'defense' will be interpreted by him to mean the occupation of islands 3,000 miles from our eastern shore, within 400 miles of Africa, belong to a neutral nation. In short, he is suggesting that he may, in dictator style, take warlike action without submitting to the people, whose vital welfare is concerned, the question whether or not we shall go to war. That is not democratic procedure."

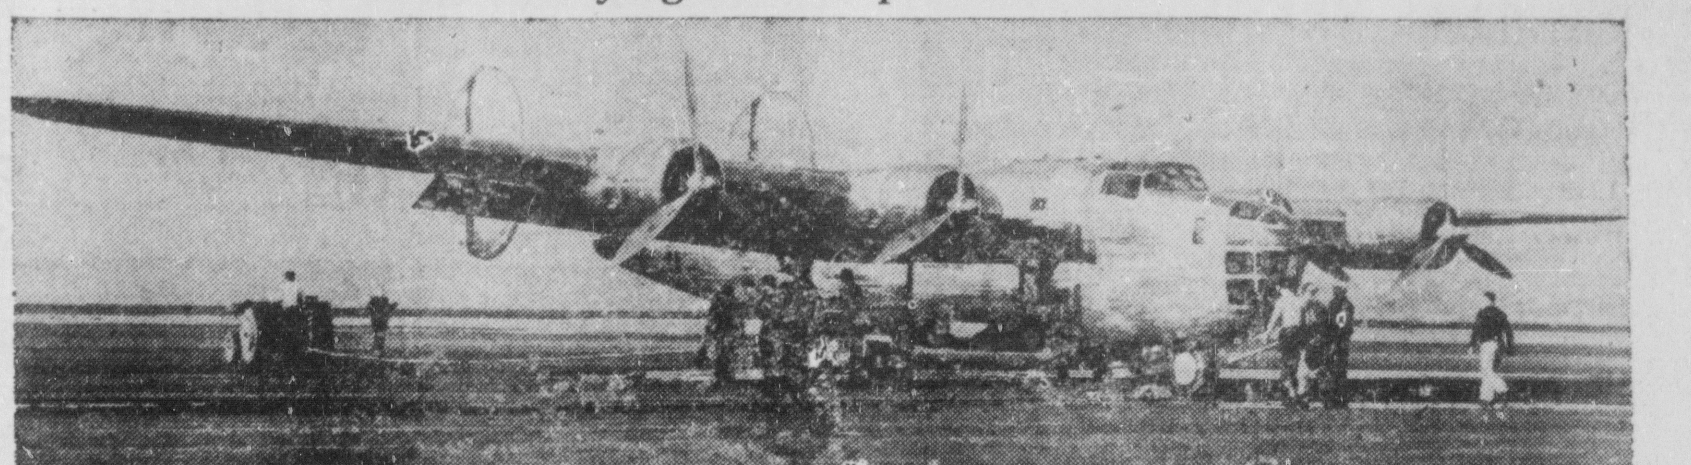

BRITISH RESCUE 100 FROM CREW OF GERMAN SHIP

LONDON, May 29 — One hundred officers and men of the battleship Bismarck were rescued after the 35,000-ton German warship was sunk Tuesday, and today were being taken to prison camps.

The admiralty, however, admitted that a German vengeance fleet of airplanes sank the destroyer Mashona the day after the Bismarck took part in the action against the Bismarck. One officer and 45 men are missing.

Newest "Flying Battle ship" Makes Her Debut

Shown on her first outing at Lindbergh Field, San Diego, Cal., is the Consolidated Aircraft Company's XB-24 bomber plane, nicknamed the "Flying Battleship." The great four-motored ship can carry a bomb load of four tons and has a range of 3,000 miles. Speed is around 300 miles an hour. The wing span is 110 feet, the fuselage is 64 feet. The ship is now said to be in production for use by the RAF.

Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedan, $1006 White sidewall tires extra.

YOU slip into this trim Buick's seat —and right off the bat you know you've found something.

The cushions fit—the wheel nestles in your hand—the whole blessed beauty seems to say, "Welcome, friend! Where've you been?"

Then you seek out an open road where you can really try Compound Carburetion†—and press down your right toe!

Instantly, there's a rush of power, as if an extra engine had gone to work.

Fact is—one has.

Under your bonnet a special, second carburetor has cut in, opening up a fresh reservoir of power not to be found in any other engine.

Most of the time that extra carburetor is idle. Your car operates solely on the small, frugal forward carburetor.

But any time you need or want power—press down your toe and away you go, with two fuel mixers working!

Thrilling? You bet. But by actual test and experience, also more thrifty—as much as 10% to 15% more thrifty than previous Buicks of like size.

Only Buick can give you Compound Carburetion—and even that is only one of Buick's many desirabilities.

There's great size—lush comfort—the smartest of style—solid Buick goodness—all at prices that spell an unmistakable bargain. Why not ask your Buick dealer, "How much?"

SOCIAL CALENDAR

One hundred and twenty-five guests, including many from out-of-town, called at the home of Mrs. R. R. Bales, East Main Street, Wednesday, when Circle 6 of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church entertained at a summer tea of lovely appointments.

A beautiful bouquet of peonies of various shades was in the living room of the Bales home, others being used on the large side porch.

The tea table in the dining room was covered with a beautiful cloth of linen cut-work, which had been purchased in Shanghai, China, by Mrs. Bales' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. DeWitt Moore, while returning from India several years ago. Yellow rose buds, yellow and purple pansies in artistic low arrangement on an oval platter centered the table where cakes and sandwiches were served.

Presiding at the silver tea service during the various periods from 2 until 5 p. m. were Mrs. Neil Peterson, Mrs. C. D. Closson and Mrs. R. G. Peters.

Mrs. P. Stanley Glick, chairman of Circle 6, and the other members of the group served as a committee of the whole for the financially successful social affair.

Mrs. M. E. Noggle was responsible for the flower arrangements.

Pleasant View Aid
A talk on "Memorial Day" by the Rev. Harold Dutt of Stoutsville was a feature of the program when the Pleasant View Ladies' Aid Society met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Gildersleeve, Saltcreek Township. Thirty-six members and guests were present for the pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. E. C. Aldenderfer led the devotional service. Readings by Mrs. Homer Wright, Miss Anna Pontius and Miss Evelyn Doner were included in the interesting program.

Summer flowers of many varieties decorated the home for the affair which was concluded with a delightful lunch.

Miscellaneous Shower
Mrs. Homer W. Patrick, Wayne Township, was honored guest at a miscellaneous shower, Tuesday evening, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Good of Ashville and Mrs. Alfred Smith of Groveport as hostess. Mrs. Patrick is the former Betty Hinkle of Ashville.

The bride received many lovely and useful gifts.

Seasonal refreshments were served following the social evening.

The invited guests included Mrs. Millard Patrick of Logan; Mrs. S. F. Hinkle, Mrs. Henry Hain, Mrs. C. E. AMERICANS LIKE CHEESE

WASHINGTON — Americans are eating more cheese. E. E. Vial of the Department of Agriculture said recently. Total consumption increased 36 percent during the past decade—from 567,592,000 pounds in 1930 to 570,003,000 pounds in 1939. Most of the increase was in consumption of American or cheddar cheese—from 67.5 percent of the total in 1930 to 72.5 percent of the total in 1939.

CALENDAR

One hundred and twenty-five guests, including many from out-of-town, called at the home of Mrs. R. R. Bales, East Main Street, Wednesday, when Circle 6 of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church entertained at a summer tea of lovely appointments.

A beautiful bouquet of peonies of various shades was in the living room of the Bales home, others being used on the large side porch.

The tea table in the dining room was covered with a beautiful cloth of linen cut-work, which had been purchased in Shanghai, China, by Mrs. Bales' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. DeWitt Moore, while returning from India several years ago. Yellow rose buds, yellow and purple pansies in artistic low arrangement on an oval platter centered the table where cakes and sandwiches were served.

Presiding at the silver tea service during the various periods from 2 until 5 p. m. were Mrs. Neil Peterson, Mrs. C. D. Closson and Mrs. R. G. Peters.

Mrs. P. Stanley Glick, chairman of Circle 6, and the other members of the group served as a committee of the whole for the financially successful social affair.

Mrs. M. E. Noggle was responsible for the flower arrangements.

Pleasant View Aid
A talk on "Memorial Day" by the Rev. Harold Dutt of Stoutsville was a feature of the program when the Pleasant View Ladies' Aid Society met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Gildersleeve, Salt Creek Township. Thirty-six members and guests were present for the pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. E. C. Aldenderfer led the devotional service. Readings by Mrs. Homer Wright, Miss Anna Pontius and Miss Evelyn Doner were included in the interesting program.

Summer flowers of many varieties decorated the home for the affair which was concluded with a delightful lunch.

Miscellaneous Shower
Mrs. Homer W. Patrick, Wayne Township, was honored guest at a miscellaneous shower, Tuesday evening, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Good of Ashville with Mrs. Alfred Smith of Groveport as hostess. Mrs. Patrick is the former Betty Hinkle of Ashville.

The bride received many lovely and useful gifts.

Seasonal refreshments were served following the social evening.

The invited guests included Mrs. Millard Patrick of Logan; Mrs. S. F. Hinkle, Mrs. Henry Hain, Mrs. C. E. Mahaffey, Mrs. Jay Hay, Mrs. Elmer Mallory, Mrs. Franklin Smith, Mrs. George Cummins, Mrs. Josephine Baker, Mrs. Eddie Pritchard, Mrs. Hattie Rife, Mrs. Thomas Rife, Mrs. Cecil Scott, Mrs. Warren Brown, the Misses Kathryn Bowers, Jane Lindsey, Clarabelle Hoover, Joanne Hinkle, Dorothy Hinkle, Lois Smalley, Margaret Berry of Ashville; Miss Jean Purcell, Miss Rebecca Baum, of Duval; Mrs. Ross Seymour and Miss Marjorie Dresbach of Circleville.

Marriage Announced
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hoover of Ashville announce the marriage of their daughter, Clarabelle, to Mr. Gaylon Pobst, son of Mr. W. P. Pobst of Ashville. The Rev. O. W. Smith performed the ceremony at the United Brethren parsonage of Ashville Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

The bride is a graduate of Ashville High School in the class of 1938.

Mr. Pobst is employed in Columbus where he and his bride plan to reside.

Sixth Birthday
Mrs. Harold McCord of Washington, C. H., formerly of Circleville, entertained Tuesday in honor of the sixth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Janet Ann.

Thirteen small guests remembered Janet Ann with lovely gifts.

When the father of John Philip Sousa came to America from Spain and Portugal, he was a well-known musical conductor working under his real name of "So." On his baggage labels he had scribbled, "Mr. So. U. S. A." The newspaper men heard from the customs that the well-known conductor, "Mr. Sousa," had arrived to fill an engagement. The name caught Mr. So's fancy, so he adopted it as his own.

AMERICANS LIKE CHEESE

WASHINGTON — Americans are eating more cheese. E. E. Vial of the Department of Agriculture said recently. Total consumption increased 36 percent during the past decade—from 567,592,000 pounds in 1930 to 570,003,000 pounds in 1939. Most of the increase was in consumption of American or cheddar cheese—from 67.5 percent of the total in 1930 to 72.5 percent of the total in 1939.

What's A-Cooking?

Could be almost anything but one thing is certain if it's an Electric Range, it's the food that's cooking and not the cook. Electric Cooking is COOL. The oven is heavily insulated on all sides. Surface units conduct heat directly into the utensils. There are no hot blasts of air circulating thru the kitchen to make it a stifling hot, uncomfortable place in which to work.

If you cook electrically your kitchen will remain as cool as any room in the house, even though you have been cooking for hours.

Connie Mack's Boys Put Up Strong Race In A. L.

By Pat Robinson

NEW YORK, May 29—The boys smiled tolerantly when dear old Connie Mack announced that he hoped to stick around until he had piloted the Athletics into another American League pennant and another world series.

"Why," they said, "the old gaffer is 79 and he's got a tailend club and he'll never live long enough to get them out of the cellar."

They didn't say this to Connie, however, because everybody loves the old boy and nobody would want to hurt his feelings. So why say anything to disillusion him?

Why not humor him and let him have his dreams in peace?

Well, these experts are wondering today if dear old Connie really was talking through his hat when he mentioned that prospective pennant. If you'll take a hasty gander at the standings today you will note that the Athletics have been going like a house afire after a bad start and that they have now won 19 against 20 losses; that they have passed the Red Sox and that they are now leading the second division and making threatening gestures toward the leaders.

The old boy finally has come up with a real ball club. He has plenty of power scattered through the line-up and he's getting some great pitching from youngsters you probably never heard of.

Tuesday he uncovered a youngster yclept Phil Marchildon to hold the Red Sox to three hits and yesterday he tossed in one Tom Ferrick to handcuff the high-priced slugging Bosox.

This youngster came on in the seventh inning and toiled 10 innings until his mates finally put over two runs in the 16th—yes, the 16th—to down the Red Sox again, 8 to 6.

Connie, who has forgotten more about baseball than most of the baseball players will ever learn, must be getting a great kick out of his club's performance. We don't know how high they can climb but we do know that everybody will be pulling for them for Connie's sake.

PITTSBURGH—

ST LOUIS, Mo., May 29—The Cincinnati Reds, the team that was supposed to but didn't today meet the St. Cardinals, the team that wasn't supposed to but did.

With the season approaching the 40-game mark, the standings show Cincinnati, defending world champion, tied for fourth place and 12 full games behind the league-leading Cards.

The Reds dropped another tilt yesterday, 7 to 4, although they outthit the Pittsburgh Pirates, 12 to 8. But Max Baer scattered his 12 bingles, while his Buccaneer mates were getting to the Reds' starting hurler, Whitey Moore, for five runs in the first three frames.

Moore let in two in the first and Vince DiMaggio chased him to the showers with a three-run homer in the third.

Johnny Vander Meer was slated to do the chucking against the Cards today, with Mort Cooper facing him.

Connie Mack's Boys Put Up Strong Race In A. L.

By Pat Robinson

NEW YORK, May 29—The boys smiled tolerantly when dear old Connie Mack announced that he hoped to stick around until he had piloted the Athletics into another American League pennant and another world series.

"Why," they said, "the old gaffer is 79 and he's got a tailend club and he'll never live long enough to get them out of the cellar."

They didn't say this to Connie, however, because everybody loves the old boy and nobody would want to hurt his feelings. So why say anything to disillusion him? Why not humor him and let him have his dreams in peace?

Well, these experts are wondering today if dear old Connie really was talking through his hat when he mentioned that prospective pennant. If you'll take a hasty gander at the standings today you will note that the Athletics have been going like a house afire after a bad start and that they have now won 19 against 20 losses; that they have passed the Red Sox and that they are now leading the second division and making threatening gestures toward the leaders.

This youngster came on in the seventh inning and toiled 10 innings until his mates finally put over two runs in the 16th—yes, the 16th—to down the Red Sox again, 8 to 6.

Connie, who has forgotten more about baseball than most of the baseball players will ever learn, must be getting a great kick out of his club's performance. We don't know how high they can climb but we do know that everybody will be pulling for them for Connie's sake.

Johnny Vander Meer was slated to do the chucking against the Cards today, with Mort Cooper facing him.

COUNCIL READS LEGISLATION CALLING FOR SPECIAL THREE MILL LEVY

AUGUST 12 VOTE ON INCREASE IN TAX IS POSSIBLE

Three Offices To Set Up Estimated Demands For Next Three Years

CITY FACING PROBLEM

Three Policemen Must Be Added Under New Ohio Legislation

Determined to keep out of a financial crisis over which it has been stepping for several years, City Council Wednesday night instructed the auditor, the service director and the safety director to draw up statements of their estimated operating expense for the next three years and report to council at the regular meeting next Wednesday night.

Council met Wednesday night to consider placing a three mill operating levy before the voters in the primary election August 12. Such an ordinance had been prepared by Solicitor Joe Adkins and was presented to council. The ordinance called for legislation necessary for submitting to the electors a three-mill levy for general operating expenses for the years of 1942 and 1943. The levy, if passed, would bring in approximately $24,000 a year, or $72,000 over a period of three years.

After financial reports have been prepared by the auditor, the safety director and the service director, council believes it can more accurately determine the exact amount needed to run the city through 1943.

May Be Under Three

The levy, which may be less than three mills, if council finds the city can operate on a smaller amount, must receive a 65 percent majority before it can be put in effect. If passed, it would not be effective until the December tax collection. Some city officials believe that if the levy could be passed, the city might issue anticipatory notes to provide operating funds until the December collection.

Council also considered placing the levy before the voters in a special election. By utilizing the city buildings and cutting fees to election clerks, officials believe the city could hold a special election for $250 or $300.

Need Three Policemen

Mayor W. B. Cady has informed the council that in July it will be necessary to add three more policemen to the present force if the city intends to conform with the 8-hour day state ruling. The state law, passed by the last session of the legislature, reads that no policeman may work more than eight hours out of any 24. If council fails to add additional men, the city will be without police protection part of the time, the Mayor warned.

When council set up its budget for 1941, one of its chief targets was the police department whose budget it slashed materially.

W. O. BOSWORTH WINS CORPORAL OFFICE AT KNOX

William O. Bosworth, son of C. L. Bosworth of Circleville, has been promoted from private first class to corporal in the 12th Observation Air Corps Squadron at Fort Knox, Ky. The squadron is attached to the First Armored Division, commanded by Major General Bruce Magruder.

Fourteen other promotions were announced at the same time.

The marriage license clerk in Denver, Colo., was amazed once upon a time when a man asked for a license to marry the woman to whom he was already wed. He said they wanted to get a license in every state in the Union and marry 48 times.

Secretary of Agriculture . . .

At last a use is being found for this country's huge gold supply. Unable to use it for money, and with more and more gold piling up at Fort Knox, we have finally sent some to the British to be used for buying up Arab leaders in Iraq and Arabia. Paper money doesn't talk in those countries, and gold speaks much louder than silver. . . . Senator Pepper of Florida is having a dispute with his good friend Harold Ickes over "political ticks" and deer in Florida. Pepper wants to kill all the deer on the Seminole Indian reservation because they spread cattle ticks. But Ickes says the deer belong to the Indians, and they have a right to keep them. Also he doubts whether they really do have ticks. . . . Frank Grillo, international secretary-treasurer of the CIO United Rubber Workers, has denounced the American Peace Mobilization and National Labor Committee Against War as leftist controlled. Grillo is the only prominent CIO leader to raise his voice against these so-called isolationist organizations.

WALL STREET BULLS AGAIN

Wall Street insiders apparently never learn and never forget. They can always be depended on to do the wrong thing at the right time. After years of public distrust and Washington hostility, the rulers of the New York Stock Exchange recently announced the selection of Emil Schram, former Midwest farmer and RFC chairman, as president of the exchange. This was hailed with great fanfare as the dawn of a new day in the "Street." At long last a man of the people would run the Exchange.

Exactly two weeks later, but carefully not publicized, these same insiders elected as chairman and vice-chairman of the Board of Governors, the real masters of the Exchange, two leading floor "specialists."

Floor specialists are traders who deal chiefly for themselves against the public. They do not deal directly with the public as the commission houses do. The Securities and Exchange Commission long has charged that specialists are basically inside speculators, interested only in their own profit and executing outside orders only on terms beneficial to themselves.

For Schram, if he intends to be boss in practice as well as in name, this undercover hatching by the "floor crowd" bodes ill. But for the SEC it is a break. It can now show Congress that far from being reformed, the stock exchange is in the hands of the "same old gang."

REMARKABLE YOUTH RECORD

Behind the President's request for another $60,000,000 for the National Youth Administration to train skilled workers for defense industries is a remarkable record of results. Between last December and May first, 149,904 NYA students secured jobs in factories and shops. This month another 45,000 will step into defense jobs, and NYA officials estimate that by June 30 more than 250,000 trained workers will have been turned out. The new budget is for continuing this program in the next fiscal year.

The NYA has 5,307 shops throughout the country training workers in drafting, plumbing, carpentry, welding, foundry, radio, electrical, aviation, machine tools, automotive and many other vital crafts. At present 153,294 students are receiving shop schooling, while another 110,075 are working on construction projects and 139,758 in clerical and professional projects.

To keep in close touch with the heads of industry, NYA administrator Aubrey Williams has an advisory council made up of the operating heads of a number of the biggest plants in the country.

STATE'S WHEAT CROP ACREAGE FOR 1942 LOWER

Guy Dowdy Declares Total To Be Minimum Provided By Federal Law

BIG CARRYOVER CITED

Management Of Reserves Big Problem, Administrator For AAA Says

The share of Ohio farmers in the 1942 national wheat acreage allotment of 55 million acres recently announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture is 1,636,308 acres.

Guy Dowdy, former Pickaway County farm agent and now extension land-use specialist at Ohio State University, explains that with a prospective carryover of around 500 million bushels expected on July 1, 1942, next year's allotment has been established at the minimum provided by law. He also points out that the 1,636,308 acre allotment for Ohio comes close to being in line with recommendations made by county land-use committees in the state.

The allotment is adjusted each year so that with the prospective carryover it will provide wheat enough for normal domestic consumption, normal exports and at least 30 percent reserve. The Ohio land-use specialist points out that since the 55 million acre allotment is above the level necessary to provide those objectives, above-normal reserves promise to be a definite part of the United States wheat situation for at least two or three more years.

"America has about 1,250,000,000 bushels of wheat in sight for the coming year," reveals R. M. Evans, administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. "Clearly the job before wheat farmers is not to waste their soil and effort in needless overproduction, but to manage well the reserves we have. The smaller allotment for 1942 in no way implies a retreat by the United States from the world wheat market."

"Along with acreage allotments and other features of the program, marketing quotas are provided by the government's farm program for orderly management of farm supplies, and wheat farmers will vote May 31 in a national referendum to decide whether they will use marketing quotas this year."

UNCLE SAM TAKES OVER U. S. LINE'S FLAGSHIP

NEW YORK, May 29—The United States Line's new $17,500,000 flagship America, the largest and costliest merchantmen ever built in this country, will be turned over to the government following her return to New York on June 5 from a West Indies cruise, line officials said today. The Maritime Commission announced yesterday that the 26,482-ton vessel was being taken over as an auxiliary for the navy.

COUNCIL READS LEGISLATION CALLING FOR SPECIAL THREE MILL LEVY

AUGUST 12 VOTE ON INCREASE IN TAX IS POSSIBLE

Three Offices To Set Up Estimated Demands For Next Three Years

CITY FACING PROBLEM

Three Policemen Must Be Added Under New Ohio Legislation

Determined to keep out of a financial crisis over which it has been stepping for several years, City Council Wednesday night instructed the auditor, the service director and the safety director to draw up statements of their estimated operating expense for the next three years and report to council at the regular meeting next Wednesday night.

Council met Wednesday night to consider placing a three mill operating levy before the voters in the primary election August 12. Such an ordinance had been prepared by Solicitor Joe Adkins and was presented to council. The ordinance called for legislation necessary for submitting to the electors a three-mill levy for general operating expenses for the balance of 1941 and for the years of 1942 and 1943. The levy, if passed, would bring in approximately $24,000 a year, or $72,000 over a period of three years.

After financial reports have been prepared by the auditor, the safety director and the service director, council believes it can more accurately determine the exact amount needed to run the city through 1943.

May Be Under Three

The levy, which may be less than three mills, if council finds the city can operate on a smaller amount, must receive a 65 percent majority before it can be put in effect. If passed, it would not be effective until the December tax collection. Some city officials believe that if the levy could be passed, the city might issue anticipatory notes to provide operating funds until the December collection.

Council also considered placing the levy before the voters in a special election. By utilizing the city buildings and cutting fees to election clerks, officials believe the city could hold a special election for $250 or $300.

Need Three Policemen

Mayor W. B. Cady has informed the council that in July it will be necessary to add three more policemen to the present force if the city intends to conform with the 8-hour day state ruling. The state law, passed by the last session of the legislature, reads that no policeman may work more than eight hours out of any 24. If council fails to add additional men, the city will be without police protection part of the time, the Mayor warned.

When council set up its budget for 1941, one of its chief targets was the police department whose budget it slashed materially.
